Perched on a ridge of 700 meters, overlooking the magnificent Taal lake and its active island volcano, Tagaytay is a picturesque city offering a panoramic view of one of the rarest known sights in the world – the smallest and lowest volcano in the world, Taal Volcano. Sitting serenely on Taal Lake, the volcano offers a receptive sight considering the violent history of past eruptions. In Ripley's Believe It or Not, it is described as "a lake within an island". South of Manila, it is one of the best day tours to discover the countryside. While in Tagaytay, we take you to a local restaurant with a view of the volcano for a taste of our local delicacies.

第 2 天 大雅台之旅-直销工厂 (早餐、午餐、晚餐)

早餐后，我们将驱车 1 个小时前往风景优美的大雅台。周围种植鲜花、蔬菜、水果、咖啡和棕榈树的农田增添了这座城市魅力。大雅台坐落在海拔 700 米的山脊上，俯瞰壮丽的塔尔湖及其活岛火山，是一座风景如画的城市，可将世界上最稀有的景点之一——世界上最小和最低的火山塔尔火山的全景尽收眼底。这座火山静静地坐落在塔尔湖上，考虑到过去喷发的暴力历史，提供了一个令人接受的景象。在里普利的信不信由你中，它被描述为“岛中的湖”。在马尼拉南部，这是探索乡村的最佳一日游之一。在大雅台，我们带您到当地餐厅，可以看到火山，品尝当地美食。

DAY 3 TOUR OF RIZAL PARK & SHOPPING IN MANILA CHINATOWN
& AMERICAN WAR MEMORIAL
(BREAKFAST / LUNCH / DINNER)

After breakfast, we start the tour with a visit to the historic Rizal Park, where the remains of the country's national hero, Dr. Jose Rizal, lie within the cornerstone of Rizal Monument. Considered as one of the largest parks in Southeast Asia, it has an area of 58 hectares which runs from Taft Avenue up to the walls of the famous Manila Bay.

Afterwards, we will tour Intramuros. Intramuros (Latin for "inside the walls") is the 0.67-square-kilometer (0.26 sq mi) historic walled area within the city of Manila, the capital of the Philippines.

It is administered by the Intramuros Administration with the help of the city government of Manila. Present-day Intramuros comprises a centuries-old historic district, entirely surrounded by fortifications, that was considered at the time of the Spanish Empire to be the entire City of Manila. Other towns and arrabales (suburbs) located beyond the walls that are now districts of Manila were referred to as extramuros, Latin for "outside the walls", and were independent towns that were only incorporated into the city of Manila during the early 20th century. Intramuros served as the seat of government of the Captaincy General of the Philippines, a component realm of the Spanish Empire, housing the colony's governor-general from its founding in 1571 until 1865, and the Real Audiencia of Manila until the end of Spanish rule during the Philippine Revolution of 1898. Intramuros, including Fort Santiago, was designated a National Historical Landmark in 1951. The fortifications of Intramuros, under the name Fortifications of Manila, were declared National Cultural Treasures by the National Museum of the Philippines, owing to its historic and cultural significance. San Agustín Church, one of four UNESCO World Heritage Sites under the entry Baroque Churches of the Philippines, is located within Intramuros. Several Philippine government agencies are headquartered in Intramuros; the Bureau of the Treasury is located in the Ayuntamiento, the old municipal hall of Manila, while the Commission on Elections is housed in an office building at Plaza Roma at the site of the old governor's palace. Several offices of the Catholic Church, including the Archdiocese of Manila and the Catholic Bishops' Conference of the Philippines, are also found at or near Manila Cathedral.

After lunch, Shopping in Divisoria. There are 3 main shopping malls: Mall 168, Mall 999 and Lucky Chinatown Plaza. Inside Mall 168, there are over 2000 stalls selling local and imported goods at very reasonable prices. Stalls are mainly owned by Chinese, Koreans and Locals. This 168 Mall is unique with stalls and shops selling a wide range of products similar to our Bugis Junction, but much bigger and better.

The Manila American Cemetery and Memorial in the Philippines occupies 152 acres on a prominent plateau, visible at a distance from the east, south and west. It contains the largest number of graves of our military dead of World War II, a total of 16,859, most of whom lost their lives in operations in New Guinea and the Philippines. The headstones are aligned in 11 plots forming a generally circular pattern, set among masses of a wide variety of tropical trees and shrubbery. The chapel, a white masonry building enriched with sculpture and mosaic, stands near the center of the cemetery. In front of it on a wide terrace are two large hemicycles. Twenty-five mosaic maps recall the achievements of the American armed forces in the Pacific, China, India and Burma. On rectangular Trani limestone piers within the hemicycles, are inscribed the Tablets of the Missing containing 36,286 names. Rosettes mark the names of those since recovered and identified. Carved in the floors are the seals of the American states and its territories. From the memorial and other points within the cemetery there are impressive views over the lowlands to Laguna de Bay and towards the distant mountains.
