ITINERARY

Day 1: Danang Arrival – Hoi An (Dinner)

Our guide will meet you at airport and transfer to city of Hoi An. On the way, cross Dragon Bridge in Da Nang which is the longest bridge in Vietnam. In the evening, transfer to the Hoi An Memories Show. Be stunned by Vietnam's largest art show where 500 performers take over the outdoor stage in their traditional ao dai costumes and modern staging techniques. Travel back in time as you explore the traditional themed village that represents the port town's 400-year history. Learn and understand the deep spiritual connection of Vietnamese people when you visit the pagodas, temples, and shrines inside the Spirituality Section of the park.

Buffet Dinner in a restaurant.

Day 2: Hoi An (Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner)

After breakfast, explore the breezy Hoi An Ancient Town, a former trading port that welcomed Chinese, Dutch, French, Japanese, Portuguese and Arab merchants from the 16th to the 18th Centuries. Now one of coastal Vietnam's most charming towns, Hoi An is home to some of the country's most beautiful ancient architecture inspired by Portuguese, Chinese and Japanese culture. Start your walking journey through the breezy streets lined with honey-yellow buildings and arrive first at Chua Ong Pagoda. This Chinese inspired structure dates back to 1653, and its interior still wafts the sweet smell of incense during the day. From here, walk onward to nearby Phuc Kien Assembly Hall and Jinshang Temple, dedicated to the Goddess of the Sea.

Have a stop at the Assembly Hall of the Fujian Chinese Congregation. After passing by the 200-year old Tan Ky House, take a short break at the Japanese Covered Bridge - one of Hoi An's most iconic structures. At "Reaching Out" Tea House - an establishment that aids locals with disabilities - sit down for a rejuvenating cup of tea before having a tasty lunch accompanied by a cooking demonstration at a restaurant specialising in traditional Hoi An delicacies.

Pass rows of serene rice paddy fields en route to Cam Thanh village where you'll get a taste of local life. Once a shelter for locals and soldiers during the war, the village is now famous for its thatched roof cottages, woven from water coconut leaves of the region. Spend some time with a local family and learn about the villagers' way of life. Then, board a bamboo basket boat and learn how to catch crabs alongside local experts. Take a well-earned rest and savour the refreshing flavor of fresh coconut water. Then proceed to Ha Linh lantern workshop.

At end of the day, set off on a culinary adventure in Hoi An to discover the flavours and dishes that make this coastal town unique. Alongside an expert local guide, your journey introduces you to the stories behind Hoi An's most iconic dishes at the town's most famous eateries. Start your tour at a local restaurant famous for white rose dumplings, found exclusively in Hoi An. Enjoy these delicacies while marveling at the work that goes into them. The staff churn out up to 6000 of these dumplings every day and each one is as beautiful as the last. Your visit here includes a chance to try making a few of your own dumplings too! Down a nearby alley, depart the dumpling shop and head onward to visit an 250 year old ancient house. This is your chance to step inside a traditional Hoi An home and see how the locals live (and eat with them over dinner if you are lucky.)! Stroll around the house, spending time with the host to learn about his life.

Before moving on, visit his workshop where his skillful hands spend hours creating sophisticated and creative silver jewellery. Take home a unique and personal souvenir or simply share your admiration with him. Continue on to find another local specialty: banh can. These crackers are served with quail eggs, pork and a tasty salad and are a Hoi An street food favourite. Pull up a small street side stool and enjoy with your guide. Alternative is banh mi "Vietnamese baguette".

Continue onward to sample grilled pork satay and visit the central market on the way. Finally, the famous Cao Lau noodles or equally popular chicken rice. Wrap up the tour with a local Vietnamese coffee - the perfect ending to any meal. Street Food Dinner.

Day 3: Hoi An – Danang Bana Hills (Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner

Meet your guide and driver in the morning and depart to Ba Na Hill. Step into another view of the nature and explore Ba Na, the hidden beauty in the Central of Vietnam. Your trip will start with a cable car ride to the top of the hills. Once arrived, the place welcomes you with the magnificent Linh Ung Pagoda and the big Buddha statue. Next, make your way to see the elegant and colourful flower from the Le Jardin D'Amour.

Make more memories when you indulge yourself in the greenery of the hills and capture them with breath-taking scenery. From here, you will then sense the giant Golden Bridge with its foggy view, then join by a visit to the French old village where it once was colonized by the French. Buffet lunch will be provided with Vietnamese traditional style. In the afternoon, you can spend your time at free leisure. You can explore either Fantasy Park with over 100 games which are suitable for different ages or other parts of Ba Na.

Finally, have a dinner with local Danang specialties in a local restaurant, before heading back to your hotel.

Day 4: Danang Departure (Breakfast)

After breakfast, transfer to Danang International Airport for your flight departure. On the way, venture just south of the city to the Marble Mountains, a cluster of marble and limestone hills named after the five elements of earth, fire, water, metal and wood. Once a major landmark during the turbulent years of the Vietnam War, the caves within the mountains served as temples, battlegrounds, and hospitals. Discover how these natural marvels became part of Vietnam's rich history, and how they continue to be one of Danang's most enduring natural landmarks.

Have a final stop at My Khe beach famous for its blue sky, smooth white sand, gentle slope, clear & warm water year-round and beautiful areas surrounded by coconut trees.
