HISTORY OF MOSCOW & ST. PETERSBURG

Moscow is the capital of Russia and its political and economic center. This amazing city has served as the capital of the Soviet Union, the Russian Empire and the Grand Duchy of Moscow. The city is filled with unique architecture from the Kremlin and Red Square to giant Stalin skyscrapers to new office blocks built during the economic boom of recent years and it contains a strikingly beautiful metro system. This is a city which never sleeps and amazes people with its luxury, crazy tempo and surprising mix of cultures. If you haven't been to Moscow you haven't really seen Russia.

Saint Petersburg is a cultural center of Russia and has a unique atmosphere. Founded on a swamp by Peter I, it became the most powerful and important center of the Russian Empire as Peter the Great moved the capital from Moscow to Saint Petersburg in 1712 and it was the capital of the Russian Empire for more than 200 years. The city was named after Saint Peter, the patron of Peter I.

DAY 5 (17 APRIL 2020) CITY TOUR OF SAINT PETERSBURG

- Breakfast at the hotel.
- City Tour of Saint Petersburg.

A lot of Russian noble families intended to move to a new Northern capital, Saint Petersburg. A huge number of Palaces were built on the territory of Saint Petersburg in different architectural styles with impressive and rich interiors. During the city tour you will see the best places of our city. Peter and Paul Cathedral, the first and oldest landmark in Saint Petersburg, which houses the remains of Russian Emperors and Empresses, Church of our Saviour on the Spilled Blood which is richly decorated with mosaic (over 7,000 square meters), Saint Isaac Cathedral which is the fourth Cupola Cathedral in the world, Smolny Institute for Noble Maidens which marked the beginning of women's education in the country, etc.

- Lunch at the restaurant.
- Tour to Peter and Paul Fortress & Peter and Paul Cathedral.

Visit to Peter and Paul Fortress and Peter and Paul Cathedral.

You will also visit Peter and Paul Fortress. The fortress was founded by Peter the Great in 1703. Besides the ancient fortifications, the fortress includes Peter and Paul Cathedral, built in the early XVIII century. Peter and Paul's Cathedral is one of the oldest symbols of Saint Petersburg and is the burial place of nearly all Russian Emperors and Empresses from Peter the Great to Nicholas II.

- Cathedral of the Saviour on the Spilled Blood.

Visit to Cathedral of the Saviour on the Spilled Blood.

You will also visit one of the most beautiful church in the world – the Cathedral of the Saviour on the Spilled Blood. The Church of the Resurrection, more commonly known as the Church on Spilt Blood, commemorates the Russian peacemaker Alexander II. Inside the Church is fascinating as the majority of mosaic is inside.

- Saint Isaac Cathedral Tour.

Visit to Saint Isaac Cathedral.

You will also visit the fourth cupola Cathedral in the world – Saint Isaac Cathedral. One of the finest architectural monuments of the XIX century, the former principal cathedral of the Russian capital has a capacity to accommodate 10,000 people. The cathedral is graced with 112 solid granite columns weighing up to 114 tons each and about 400 relieves and bronze sculptures. The observation platform on the colonnade provides a magnificent view of the city.

DAY 6 (18 APRIL 2020) TOUR TO PETERHOF: PALACE & PARK, TOUR TO PUSHKIN

- Breakfast at the hotel.
- Tour to Peterhof: Palace & Park.

Visit to Grand Palace and Lower Park.

Peter the Great first mentioned the Peterhof site in his Tsar's Campaign Journal in 1705 during the Northern War, as a good place to construct a landing for use in travelling to and from the island fortress of Kronstadt. According to Peter's concept, Peterhof had to become the most splendid residence in Europe, and also become a triumphal monument as a successful conclusion of Russia's struggle to the Baltic Sea. In 1723 the grand residence was formally inaugurated. Peter proudly showed foreign visitors the "paradise" that he had constructed on a deserted marshy coast. After his death Peterhof Palace remained the official summer Royal residence for 200 years.

Peterhof is a jewel of Russian art – a town of parks, palaces and fountains. The museum-reserve consists of the Grand palace, small palaces and amazing Fountain park, which deserves most of your time in Peterhof.

Peterhof palace and park is one of the most popular tourist attractions not only in Saint Petersburg, but also in Russia. Peterhof park with a unique fountain system is considered to be one of the most spectacular parks in the world. There are about 300 fountains on the territory of the Lower Park of Peterhof.

- Lunch at the restaurant.
- Tour to Pushkin.

Visit to Catherine Palace and Catherine Park.

For two centuries The Tsar Village (Tsarskoe Selo) was a grand imperial summer residence, the construction of which was a matter of state importance. Catherine palace and park ensemble is a superb example of world-ranking architecture. The heart of the ensemble, Catherine Place, is a marvelous example of the Russian Baroque style. Today we can feel the spirit of the most luxurious lady Elizabeth, the daughter of Peter I, and Catherine the Great.
